

6. English as First and Only Language

“We have one language here and that is the English language.”

Theodore Roosevelt

If there were any questions, that is our only answer summarized in eleven simple words.

Issue/Problem

This National proposal declares that English will be the only officially recognized and tax-payer supported language in the United States of America.

This is the second of the three (3) overriding social and economic issues that the American Agenda presentation is built around and upon. The other two (2) are the American Population Management and U.S. Re-Employment proposals that form the functional cornerstones of the overall American Agenda. All three (3) are critical to the restructuring of the National System for the Common Good of our citizens.

At first look my impression was that the proposal clarifying the national language controversy seemed minor in comparison to the other two complex issues, however that turned out not to be the case. As I struggled over the content of the draft, I began to understand just how clearly the language issue demonstrates what is wrong with Special Interest politics and the Congress, and what that irresponsible combination is doing to our National System. These became some of the hardest pages to write in all of CS2.

More Common Sense

Logically, a common national language may be seen as both glue and grease within any country's National System. It is glue in that it facilitates a common bond of intelligence that allows the people of any nation to easily communicate in speech and writing — whether they are in their native land or upon meeting each other in another country that has some other native language. It is a human comfort to easily communicate with other people.

It is grease in that it allows individuals and businesses large and small to easily interact, naturally facilitating effective and efficient communication within their own country, thereby promoting the flow of commerce and industry. It supports open and transparent communication which in turn promotes trust.

English has naturally and functionally served as America's only national language since that historic day in July 1776, over 230 years ago when our national ancestors declared their independence. There can be no prudent or practical rationale presented that could justify why a second language should now be legislatively forced upon American society, the tax-payers, and in particular, We the People...

This proposal was deemed necessary for inclusion in CS2 to confront yet another negative side-effect of the unchecked Illegal Occupant (IO) invasion of America that is mainly coming from the Central and South American (CSA), predominantly Spanish-speaking nations.

Certain businesses, industries, and some pro-Latino Special Interest entities are lobbying to make Spanish a publicly supported language, funded by our tax dollars and forcing additional burdens on many businesses and a multitude of public services – and all of that only to make it easier for English-illiterate IOs to seek in and exist within our sovereign borders. That's the facts.

At last check 30 of the states had seen the unfortunate, yet public necessity to legislate and make English their state's official language. This includes the southern border state of Arizona that passed "English only" legislation under their Proposition 103 in the November 2006 election – and with a 3 to 1 voter approval margin. Consider that Arizona's citizens live on the border with Mexico and do not want Spanish supported in their state, by their taxes – to say nothing about the IOs that constantly wash through their state.

A somewhat interesting fact is that over 60 other countries around the world, including Belize located on Mexico's southern border, have declared English to be their official national language.

See the website ProEnglish.org for more details on the issue.

The primary and logical reason that English was never designated as America's official language is that it has always been assumed that it was – why legislate the obvious. And you might reasonably ask why we should now be required to pass laws to certify our own language?

The answer to the question "Why" in this case is the same response as for many of the other on-going issues facing the American public – it is the dysfunctional Congress of the United States of America.

Dysfunctional, with regard to the Common Good of our citizens, that is. It is both Houses and both political Parties in the Congress that refuse to act responsibly and to Protect the Common Good of American society.

In too many cases, the Congress as a united body works in a “coordinated” manner to Provide legislative action or pre-meditated inaction clearly for the benefit of Special Interest entities. Congress’ Common Agenda is rapidly becoming retention and use of legislative political power that serves the Few, at the expense of the Many. And the situation has only gotten worse since 2001. Can any objective person argue with that observation?

That “Few over the Many” political reality is what drove the common people to leave the Old World and come to the New World. It later caused our national ancestors, the American colonists to declare their independence from the Old World Order and establish a government designed to be ruled by and for the Common Good of the Masses.

Take a few moments and consider — that oppressive Old World political reality is what We the People are finding ourselves living with today. And even though we do not like to consider that to be America’s reality – I know and you know — that statement is far closer to the Plain Truth than any of us want to admit.

o o o o

For now, it would serve us to acknowledge that the US Congress that has pretty well refined their ability to screw-up and/or to ignore even the most practical things. And with regard to the topic of this proposal, they are currently dancing around making English the official and only tax-payer supported language of America.

Let us continue with this heart warming example of Special Interest politics.

You Want the Truth — We Will Share the Truth

What the various Special Interest lobbyists are really pushing the Congress to do in this case is to enact national legislation certifying Spanish as the second tax-payer supported language in America. They do not give a good dam about certifying English — their only concern is for Spanish to be added to the tax-payer’s tab! Give that angle some thought if you haven’t already.

Further, the Congress and the all too willing Bush II White House are not working on this Spanish-on-Demand legislation because they are worried about a small ‘screaming’ portion of America’s Latino community or that they are interested in Latino campaign donations or to help secure Latino votes down the road — or because they really care about Latino’s. The American Latino community legal and IO should not kid itself!

Their Special Interest “mission” is only to make it as easy as possible for non-English speaking, cheap, IO, Latino labor pool to exist and grow within America’s sovereign borders. They want cheap labor no matter what language ‘it’ might speak.

Further, the Special Interest does not care about any of the negative civil behavior of any IOs that seek into America from all over the world, or what conditions they may be required live in after they arrive. They do not care or consider any of that their problem! And on top of all that, they definitely do not want their taxes raised to pay for the costs generated. It is commonly known as, “They want their cake and to eat it, too.” And so for they are doing just that!

And they are not alone. Today (which just happens to be Saturday August 11, 2007 at about 6:25am, and I am refining the draft a bit before I go to work), in too many cases the Special Interest entities on various issues are clearly winning the struggle for Power and Control over our National System – the way America really works on a day-to-day.

We the People are paying a growing price in actual lives and dollars, and at the same time observing as our nation’s quality of life slowly erodes. This is not the way things are supposed to be.

o o o o

With this example of just how little ‘that’ Special Interest entity really cares for the welfare of the IOs, let us bring our focus back to the Congress and “their” true level of interest in the People’s Common Good.

If, we step back at look at the Big Picture for a sobering moment, I believe it is easy to observe that US Congress is also exhibiting less and less concern for the conditions that average Americans are required live in.

The next you hear them referred to as the “do nothing Congress” – consider that they are doing something for Them, but are doing nothing for Us! That is the net result of their work. It is only the Plain Truth, folks.

This would be a good time to refer back to that Grievance List and see how often and well that statement can be applied there. Ponder that for a few moments my fellow Americans. The good news is that We the Power have the absolute Constitutional power to correct this dysfunctional national condition and that approach will be addressed in Part 5.

o o o o

Our Crisis

The overall and growing national Crisis is that IOs are not only being allowed, but are encouraged to trespass and violate our borders by land, sea, and air from all over the world.

That steady IO flow is the intended net result of various Special Interest driven legislation and domestic propaganda campaigns.

This correctable, national condition is intentionally being promoted by Special Interest, non-Democratic and overtly dictatorial population management policies orchestrated primarily to benefit corporate profits and very short-term thinking — and all at the total expense of the taxpayers and with complete disregard (if not contempt) for American society.

We must declare such dictatorial policies and the increasing social negatives they generate will not be allowed to continue.

o o o o

As a result of Congress' national irresponsibility on such a bone-marrow, national issue — it is now necessary for Americans to demand that English be legislated as our only national language.

This is yet another case where narrow-focused, Special Interest and irresponsible business lobbies with far too much political influence are imposing something on American society that is not in the best interest of the nation or the Common Good of the citizenry.

Again, the Special Interest agenda operating here is the socially inappropriate push to have Spanish in both voice and written applications to become a mandatory requirement for private enterprise and countless public service programs.

Looking at the Bigger Picture — Special Interest politics, supported by various screamer groups have thus far succeeded in the total suppression of an absolute Immigration Control Policy and creation of a totally practical National Id System. Now they would force the government (our taxes wasted) and business large and small (the cost of goods and services avoidably increased) to accommodate non-English speaking (or reading or writing) IOs within our National System for long periods of time, if not for the rest of their lives – and without ever being required to learn our language.

Calmly and rationally observed, this is part of a coordinated Special Interest campaign intended to wrestle control of American society away from We the People. This is not conspiracy theory — this is what is happening right before our eyes! To make our country as comfortable as possible for an endless flow of IOs to move in, live, and multiply.

In over 230 years America has never seen the practical need to so accommodate any other group and we are not going to start now! I call this type of situation Beyond Sense (BS).

This has all the makings of an American nightmare, not a Dream. We the People must now awaken and bring an end to this bad dream.

o o o o

A Question of Hemispheric Balance and Nation-to-Nation Responsibility

During the 2006 Congressional campaign a congressman from a middle-America state was on the evening news and was asked about the problem illegal immigration. In his response which was anti-IO, he commented that if the flow of IOs was not stopped it would “ruin the fabric of American society.”

I had not heard it put that way before, but thought that it was a good way to frame the situation. Having thought about the meaning of that comment and how it might be presented in CS2, brings me to the following remarks which were a bit difficult to develop, and will be difficult for some to read, but such concepts must be considered as we work together to define and control our nation’s future.

Blending into the Melting Pot

Whatever happened to the idea of groups blending into American society?

Using a harsh, yet appropriate analogy — instead of a blending into American society that a legal and fully controlled entry of foreign-born Latinos (and others) could accommodate – there continues to be a deliberate, pre-meditated, and orchestrated “dumping” of CSA population, northward across the US/Mexican border.

Bluntly put, it has created a virtual social and economic “oil-slick” across our entire country and throughout our National System. The CSA people are arriving in such numbers that they are trying to install their national customs and habits within our borders rather than learning how to adapt to our culture as other ethnic groups have been required to do and have done in the past. So much for blending in!

Going forward, the sources of that growing oil slick must be stopped (a 2,000 mile fence will be a good start) and then cleaned-up in order to Preserve the “traditional fabric” our society, or we can just kiss it good-bye. Is that clear enough?

Note to reader: Again, I can completely understand why this piece in general could be seen as ‘somewhat’ prejudiced in its tone and content. I will assure you that it is not. It is written from the absolute point-of-view of the average, disgusted American citizen. You know, the Silent Majority. Being absolutely pro-American does not make a person anti-immigrant or a racist of any kind. After all it is our country, so hang in there.

That said allow me to explain the “hemispheric” reference. It will be expanded upon later, but this is an appropriate application of a foreign policy concept whose time has probably come. Hold on tight and let’s go back about 500 years in our hemisphere’s political history.

So there it was, the Western Hemisphere circa 1508. You know about the time that the Native Americans were beginning to introduce the tobacco plant to the world. Talk about paybacks!

Over the next few centuries the New World would be colonized (a nice way to put it) mainly by the England and Spain, with a little bit of the French and some others. However, the main players were England and Spain. In the end things pretty much wound up with England taking control and colonizing what is now America and Canada, with Spain doing the same with what became Central and South America.

Since England and Spain never did get along very well and after it all was sorted out including right through to the “Alamo” — the hemisphere was virtually split in two (2) at what is now the good old US/Mexico border. Go figure! Each “half” was initially conquered, then settled and developed under totally different yet equally oppressive dictatorial-style governments, with different ‘primary’ languages, and different primary religious authorities.

This is where the concepts and reality of Hemispheric Balance, and nation-to-nation responsibility comes into play. To the North it was English and the Protestant Church of England. To the South it was Spanish and the Roman Catholic Church. There were of course some sprinklings here and there, but overall that is how it shaped-up and it stayed that way through today.

Bear with me on the following scenario. Sometimes it is beneficial in the problem solving process to observe other similar, but not rally identical situations for a better perspective on the situation you are dealing with. It is perspective that will take some time for us all to think about.

Our buddy Webster, defines ethnic as, a member of an ethnic group; a member of a minority group who retains customs, language, or social views of the group

We have all heard about the ethnic cleansing that took place in Eastern Europe after the fall of the Soviet Union. The Soviets had literally been sitting on top of the ethnic Servs and Croats hatred for each other for seventy (70) years – 7 decades — not allowing them to go after each other again and again as was their “tradition”.

But then, as I like to describe it, as soon as the Soviets left those “people” dug up the floors in their homes, pull out the old grenades, and tossed them over the fence at their neighbors. After 70 years!

o o o o

We have been watching a similar yet exceedingly worse display taking place in Iraq. Worse because it is a lethal combination of:

- Shiite Moslem vs Sunni Moslem
- Moslem vs Kurds
- Tribal, yes ‘tribal’ warfare Sunni Moslem tribes
- Tribal warfare Shiite Moslem tribes
- Eye for an Eye, payback killings by Shiite’s for 20-years of the Sunni minority that under SH’s rule had military power over the Shiite majority (60%). And abused that power.
- Shiite and Sunni intruders sent from neighboring countries in the region.
- And, let us not forget, the original reason for the Iraq War, who gets the bigger share of Iraq’s oil rights and revenues. But I digress!

Appropriately, there will be more on that grim reality when we review the Military Industrial Complex.

o o o o

You are asking how this applies to our primarily Latino IO problem. Our IO problem would never become that violent. And of course it would not.

However, we are approaching a forced and un-natural, cultural imbalance that is unprecedented in history. I believe it is fair to say that there has never been a “peace time” migration of one culture’s people, in this case represented by the CSA countries into another culture – America.

We have watched a few million Iraqi's flee into somewhat accepting neighboring countries, with permission. However, that is wartime and the neighboring countries have complimentary cultures. Those receiving countries are struggling to support what they intend to be only a temporary influx, to be returned when the war ends.

You may ask what this has to do with ending the current Latino invasion of North America. With the 1986 Immigration Act and citizenship amnesty granted what termed out to be several million IOs, our government under the Reagan Administration told the American public that was it. That we had an official Guest Worker Program and that business would then be penalized and prosecuted for employing IOs from then on — just like they are paying lip-service to now.

Some 22 years later, bad history is trying to repeat itself. And if it does, just like the Eagles once sang,

“You call some place paradise, then you can kiss it good-bye”

o o o o

I will somewhat abruptly end this piece now. These are the hard issues for each of us to seriously ponder. And our nation's Destiny is the only thing at risk.

And I must challenge the reader to consider how they would attempt to frame such issues. We are hereby challenged to have this national discussion because America does not have:

- An official national language
- A viable Immigration Control Policy
- A controlled National Id System
- A controlled Visitor Tracking System

We will either have an America they we can recognize or we should declare the United Nations building in New York City the new nation's capital and start living under their jurisdiction.

The People's Sense

As stated, the unfortunate need for us to even address this issue easily ties into American Population Management and the Immigration Control Policy about reversing the Latino invasion (and from around the world) and the growing negative impacts it is forcing upon American society and the taxpayers. This language “side-issue” in that broader IO Crisis needs to be brought to a rapid close and the “US” Congress needs to have English declared and certified as our only language, by let’s say July 4, 2008.

Businesses may and government will then quit producing any public materials in Spanish or any other language and wasting our good tax dollars. For example, the growing practice of printing federal, state, and various local public service information in anything but English will stopped. Further, Spanish-only speaking people will be held responsible for bringing their own interpreter with them to public offices, e.g., traffic court.

This is clearly another “or else” type of an issue for any politicians that plan to run in 2008 for the Presidency or the Congress. Challenge them on it when they are campaigning – find out who they are really intending to work for if elected or re-elected.

Some Considerations

- Just as any other group that has come to America, and is expected to blend into the great melting-pot, the Spanish-speaking will not have the on-going use of their native language supported in this country and certainly not by our taxes.
- The one-language issue will also be inserted into the Naturalization process. Going forward people will be required to not only speak English but to read it as well, or their initial application for American citizenship will not be granted. Other countries do this and we will make no apologies for finally tightening our non-citizen rules.

The same restrictions will be applied to requests for Green Cards and Permanent Resident Alien status, as well. The line will be drawn.

- Large numbers of the IOs flowing into the country from the CSAs do not know any English and may not naturally possess the ability (let alone the desire) to learn it or any other language beyond their own. This does not imply they are un-intelligent, but simple fact is that not everyone has that natural ability to learn another language.

During the National Population Registration (NPR) process, IOs that cannot speak English will be among the first to be repatriated because they are simply the easiest to identify. And no one had better mention the word ‘profiling’. Go sit in your local traffic court some day and observe — it is appalling.

- I spoke with a first grade teacher in early 2006 in Loudoun County, Virginia (just outside of DC). She had been teaching in a local elementary school for six-plus years and had changed schools at the start of the school year. She told me that the conditions were the same in both schools and it was getting worse each year – stating that she was in practice having to teach English as a Second Language (ESL) in her regular class since so many kids did not have English language skills. Repeat that in thousands of classrooms across the country.

Do I even need to say how much this degrades our children’s education?

What Personally Disturbed Me

On the lighter side, I will share my personal irritation by relating an experience I had with what I consider language related government waste. For many years I have traveled the I-64 inter-state that runs the 60 miles between Richmond and Newport News, Virginia where my father lived and beyond that to the Outer Banks of North Carolina (I love it there). For what seemed years there was not a public rest area on the eastbound side – it was perpetually under construction. But, it finally opened and is a large colonial style brick building – you know the classic Williamsburg image. So I stopped to check it out one day and see how my Virginia tax dollars were being spent.

I walked up to the men’s room and the signage next to the door had the usual little international symbol a man that is intended to cover all the bases and below that the word, “Men.” No problem. But, below that it had another word, “Hombres.” When I saw that ridiculous waste of good taxes — I was disgusted! Virginia is over 1500 miles from the Southern border.

Sorry, but I just had to share that one with you. Have you had a similar experience?

They Are to Work for Us

The Congress must be made to remember that they are to work to promote the Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness of American citizens. That is their purpose and reason for being as declared by The Founders.

If Congress would only grow some political guts, these types of no-brainer issues could be practically resolved. Such matters would rapidly become a fading memory for Americans and we could stop wasting our tax dollars continuously re-studying or discussing such issues. The People might even begin to appreciate and respect the Congress again. Their job “disapproval” rating in 2007 was higher than that of Bush IIs — which is hard to top!

It would be highly beneficial, IF, the Democratic Party in particular would finally wake up and remember that they, as opposed to the Republicans that willingly bow to Business, are supposed to be the Party of the American people and that means American citizens.

Democrats were not elected (by the majority of) their Party's voters to serve every foreign-based group that comes here and wants to claim citizen-level Rights and Liberties. Those non-American born people are "screaming" for privileges that they do not deserve and often could not begin to get in their own country.

For years it seemed to me that we functionally have Republican and a semi-Republican Party operating under that beautiful Capitol Dome. And that is functionally not good, for the Common Good !

Yes, the Democratic Party does need to wake-up and realize that while there is certainly a place for Liberal policy considerations in our Democratic system – that there are prudent and practical limits when the Common Good of We the Citizens is clearly at stake. Can there any question of that being the case today?

If all the members of US Congress, regardless of Party affiliation, would set about doing the People's work, would declare and aggressively promote a true National Vision for America, then they would not be required to raise millions of dollars to get re-elected. They would be doing it the old fashion way – they would earn it!

Currently, though both Houses of Congress are not demonstrating a patriotic, citizen-oriented stance on this basic national issue and too many others, as well.

Challenge every candidate about this as they come around looking for your donation and vote.

Enough said.
